INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiffs complain of Defendants herein and allege that:

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ADVOCATES is a Nevada Nonprofit Corporation organized with the principal purpose of helping to eliminate discrimination against individuals with disabilities by ensuring public facilities are in compliance with laws intended to provide access to housing, public buildings, transportation, goods and services and to make sure that people with disabilities are treated with dignity.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ADVOCATES is committed to serving the needs of all disabled people and fully supports the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990, California Disabled Persons Act and Unruh Civil Rights Act.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ADVOCATES believes the goals and objectives of these laws will enhance the quality of our society, that the American economy will be made stronger by businesses that reach out to include all segments of the population, and that these laws ultimately help to invigorate the economy by bringing more individuals with disabilities into the consumer mainstream. It is also AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ADVOCATES' belief that meaningful efforts to do so will offer many citizens more opportunities to participate fully in the economic and social mainstream. There can be no question that the Americans With Disabilities Act, passed in 1990, established as law the nation's interest in eradicating the bigotry and barriers faced by individuals with disabilities 42 U.S.C. §12101 et seq (hereafter "ADA"). In fact, the ADA states its first goal as being "to provide a clear and comprehensive national mandate for the elimination of discrimination against individuals with disabilities." See, 42 U.S.C. §12101 (b) (1) (1999). The ADA creates the possibility that successful Plaintiffs may establish permanent changes in the design and physical configuration of structures to better accommodate the disabled 42 U.S.C. §12101 (A) (5). The benefits of each change clearly rebound not only to Plaintiffs themselves, but also to similarly situated disabled persons, and the entire society at large. Plaintiffs or Plaintiffs' classes who bring suit pursuant to the ADA do so in the role of "private attorneys general" who seek to vindicate "a policy of the highest priority" See, Christiansburg Garment Co v EEOC, 434 U.S. 412, 417, 98 S.Ct. 694, 698 (discussing ADA Plaintiffs as private attorneys general); Rosenberg v Merill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith, Inc., 170 F.3d 1, 11 (1st Cir, 1999).

COSTLESS FURNITURE WAREHOUSE AND QUANV LE & N LAN provides inadequate access to people with disabilities, including, inter alia: There is no Accessible route into the business due to steps (absolutely no handicapped accessible signage), a violation of ADAAG section 4.1.2(1) and Title 24 1107A.2.1. There is 2 sets of stairways, approximately 6 steps each side leading into the facility. See Exhibit A, OUTSIDE signage of COSTLESS

FURNITURE WAREHOUSE; See Exhibit B, No accessible route into the business due to 2 set of stairway – approximately 6 steps each side leading into the facility. Because of these barriers, entering this facility was impossible for persons with mobility disabilities, such as the Plaintiffs, to gain access to this facility.

JURISDICTION

This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. sections 1343(a)(3) and 1343(a)(4) for claims arising under the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. sections 12101, et. seq. Plaintiffs' cause of action arose in this district. COSTLESS FURNITURE WAREHOUSE AND QUANV LE & N LAN are residents of SAN LEANDRO, California.

Under the doctrine of pendant and supplemental jurisdiction, this Court has jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' claims arising under California State law.

Although he sometimes can walk with the aid of a prosthesis, at other times difficulties with sores on the stump of his amputated leg, make use of the prosthesis difficult or impossible and requires that he use a wheelchair in order to travel about in public. Plaintiff RICHARD WHITEHURST is an individual with a physical disability within the meaning of all applicable statutes, including the ADA, 42 United States Code section 12101, et seq., California Civil Code sections 54 et seq., California Business and Professions Code sections 17200, et seq., and California Health and Safety Code sections 19955, et seq. Plaintiff is a physically disabled or "physically handicapped" person who often requires use of a wheelchair to travel about in public places. Mr. WHITEHURST has degenerative gout whose physical conditions required the use of a wheelchair. Although he sometimes walk, at other times difficulties with sores in his limbs, makes it difficult or impossible to walk and requires that he use a wheelchair in order to travel about in public.

5. Defendants COSTLESS FURNITURE WAREHOUSE AND QUANV LE & N LAN , are located in SAN LEANDRO, CA, is a for-profit partnership that owns, operates, maintains and/or controls retail establishments located in the City of SAN LEANDRO, COUNTY OF ALAMEDA, State of California.

6. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and therefore allege, that COSTLESS FURNITURE WAREHOUSE AND QUANV LE & N LAN business was newly built and/or underwent substantial remodeling, repairs or alterations after 1971.

7. Defendants have known that COSTLESS FURNITURE WAREHOUSE AND QUANV LE & N LAN violated disability access requirements and standards, but have refused to rectify the violations.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

8. GEORGE S. LOUIE is the Executive Director of the AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ADVOCATES and is a physically disabled person who uses a wheelchair for mobility. RICHARD WHITEHURST is a Member of the AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ADVOCATES and is a physically disabled person who often uses a wheelchair for mobility.

9. Within the last year before the filing of this complaint, Plaintiffs RICHARD WHITEHURST and GEORGE S. LOUIE attempted to visit COSTLESS FURNITURE WAREHOUSE.

10. Plaintiffs will visit this facility on a regular basis when it comes into compliance with state and federal law.

11. Defendants own, operate and/or maintain a public accommodation as COSTLESS FURNITURE WAREHOUSE AND QUANV LE & N LAN located in the City of SAN LEANDRO, COUNTY OF ALAMEDA, and State of California. This case arises out of Defendants' failure to provide the minimum legally required access to its public accommodations for persons with disabilities.

12. COSTLESS FURNITURE WAREHOUSE AND QUANV LE & N LAN have the following violation:

a. There is no Accessible route into the business due to steps (absolutely no handicapped accessible signage), a violation of ADAAG section 4.1.2(1) and Title 24 1107A.2.1. There is 2 set of stairway – approximately 6 steps each side leading into the facility.

13. The inaccessibility of COSTLESS FURNITURE WAREHOUSE AND QUANV LE & N LAN to persons with disabilities is illegal, degrading and humiliating.

14. Many of the actions which Defendants failed to make COSTLESS FURNITURE WAREHOUSE AND QUANV LE & N LAN accessible to persons with disabilities were readily achievable, required by law and would have greatly assisted persons with disabilities at little expense to Defendants.

15. Because of these barriers, entering this facility was impossible for persons with mobility disabilities, such as the Plaintiffs, to gain access to this facility.

16. California's Unruh Civil Rights Act, Civil Code Section 52(a) reads as follows: Whoever denies, aids or incites a denial, or makes any discrimination or distinction contrary to Section 51, 51.5 or 51.6, is liable for each and every offense for the actual damages, and any amount that may be determined by a jury, or a court sitting without jury, up to a maximum of three times the amount of actual damage but in no case less than four thousand dollars ($4,000.00), and any attorney's fees that may be determined by the court in addition thereto, suffered by any person denied the rights provided in Section 51, 51.5, or 51.6. Amended January 1st, 2002.

17. The Attorney General of the State of California believes that the former $1,000.00 damage award is unlikely to have sufficient deterrent effect on the discriminatory practices of a large company. Defendants may have had hundreds or thousands of transactions that violated the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and the California's Unruh Civil Rights Act and which would have unjustly enriched them. Thus, the prospect of paying an occasional four thousand dollars ($4,000.00) damage award due to a discriminatory practice may be calculated as an absorbable cost of doing business. The minimum amount was increased to at least $4,000.00. See California's Unruh Civil Rights Act Section 52(a), Amended January 1st, 2002. This legislation was supported by California Attorney General, Anti-Defamation League and California School Employees Association.

18. The United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in Botosan vs. Paul McNally Realty, 216 F.3rd 827 at 835 (June 20, 2000) held that, "Consumer was entitled to award of statutory minimum damages under California's Unruh Civil Rights Act, even without prove of actual damages", and "Proof of actual damages is not prerequisite to recovery of statutory minimum damages under California's Unruh Civil Rights Act."
